Indianapolis Symphony Extends 2012 Marsh Symphony on the Prairie Season to Sept. 7-8;
Single Tickets Go On Sale to General Public April 23

Jazz Swing band Big Bad Voodoo Daddy moves to Sept. 7-8; Pop-rock singer and songwriter Jon McLaughlin performs Sept. 1-2 of Labor Day weekend

Marsh Supermarkets renews Title Sponsorship through the 2015 summer season

INDIANAPOLIS – The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra will extend the 2012 Marsh Symphony on the Prairie season by one weekend and add pop-rock singer, songwriter and Hoosier native Jon McLaughlin to the mix. McLaughlin will perform Saturday and Sunday, September 1 and 2, and renowned Swing band Big Bad Voodoo Daddy will perform Friday and Saturday, September 7 and 8 to close out the season. Originally, Big Bad Voodoo Daddy was slated for the September 1 and 2 concert dates that will now feature McLaughlin.

From June 16 through September 8, the ISO will present 30 concerts over the course of 13 weekends at the Conner Prairie Amphitheater in Fishers, Indiana. Since its inception in 1982, the Marsh Symphony on the Prairie series has grown from a few performances to an entire season of concerts and presentations. Marsh Supermarkets has sponsored the series since 1982 and has renewed its title sponsorship through the 2015 summer season. St. Vincent Health is the Premiere Sponsor for the summer series.

UPDATE – 2012 Marsh Symphony on the Prairie Schedule:

June 16: Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue

Guest conductor Ryan McAdams will open the 2012 summer season with classical favorites such as Elgar's Enigma Variations and Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue featuring Stephen Beus, the winner of the 2006 American Pianists Association Max I Allen Fellowship.

June 22-23: Heroes & Victors – Music from Sports Greatest Films

Conducted by Alfred Savia, Heroes & Victors features the clips from classic sports films such as Chariots of Fire, Breaking Away and Hoosiers shown on large video walls near the stage as the ISO plays excerpts from the scores.

June 29-30: The Music of Queen

Conductor Brent Havens and his tribute band join the Orchestra to perform the many hits by legendary 1970s and 1980s rock band Queen.

July 2-4: Star-Spangled Symphony

The ISO and Maestro Savia celebrate Independence Day with three concerts featuring many patriotic favorites including the 1812 Overture with live artillery accompaniment and Stars and Stripes Forever with a spectacular firework display. Gates open at 4:30 p.m.

July 6-7: Disco Night at the Prairie – A Tribute to the Bee Gees

Tribute band Stayin' Alive joins the ISO and Maestro Savia in a Disco-style program highlighted by the many hits from The Bee Gees.

July 13-14: The ISO Goes Global – The Music of our Sister Cities

ISO Assistant Conductor David Glover takes patrons on a world tour of celebrated classical works representing Indianapolis' sister cities in Germany, Italy, and China, among others. Guest violinist Stefan Jackiw also pays homage to Indy's sister city of Cologne with Bruch's glorious Scottish Fantasy.

July 20-21: The Best of Broadway

Noted pops conductor Stuart Chafetz and a talented cast of New York City's best vocalists put the hits of Broadway's greatest musicals on center stage.

July 27-28: The Glenn Miller Orchestra with the ISO

The renowned Glenn Miller Orchestra and band leader Nick Hilscher return to the Conner Prairie Amphitheater and join the ISO in performing the ensemble's most recognizable works such as Moonlight Serenade and In the Mood.

August 3-4: An Evening with Don McLean

Legendary folk singer and songwriter Don McLean joins the ISO's string section in an evening of his enduring hits such as "American Pie" and "Vincent (Starry, Starry Night)".

August 10-11: Vivaldi's The Four Seasons

The ISO's string players will be this weekend's star performers as they bring classical favorites – such as Vivaldi's The Four Seasons – to the stage, led by 2002 International Violin Competition of Indianapolis Gold Medalist Barnabás Kelemen.

*August 17-18: Classical Mystery Tour – A Tribute to the Beatles

For a fifth consecutive summer season, the members of the Broadway cast of Beatlemania will perform many Beatles hits such as Hard Day's Night, Twist and Shout, Yellow Submarine and Here Comes The Sun in an authentic tribute to Liverpool's "Fab Four."

*August 24-25: Diamond Rio

Four-time Country Music Award-winning band Diamond Rio will showcase its inventive country style and superb vocal artistry by performing many hits such as "Meet in the Middle," "How Your Love Makes Me Feel," and "Love a Little Stronger" in its Marsh Symphony on the Prairie debut.

*August 30-31: The Contours – 50 Years of Motown!

The legendary Motown vocal quartet The Contours will perform many of its enduring favorites such as "Do You Love Me," "Can You Do It" and "Can You Jerk Like Me" in their first-ever appearances at the Conner Prairie Amphitheater.

*September 1-2 – Jon McLaughlin

Pop-rock singer, songwriter and Hoosier native Jon McLaughlin and his band will perform many of their hits, including the Oscar-nominated "So Close" (from the film Enchanted), "Human," "Promising Promises," "Summer is Over" and the title song from his album, Indiana, among others.

September 7-8 – Big Bad Voodoo Daddy

Big Bad Voodoo Daddy returns to bring its blend of jazz, swing, Dixieland and Big Band music to close the Marsh Symphony on the Prairie season and will perform with the ISO in these concerts.

* The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra does not perform in these concerts
