Krzysztof Urbanski became the seventh Music Director in the ISO's history when, in 2011, he joined the artistic leadership team of Jack Everly, Principal Pops Conductor, and Raymond Leppard, Conductor Laureate. Concertmaster Zach De Pue, one of the youngest concertmasters in the U.S., joined the ISO in 2007. In 2009, the ISO named De Pue's string trio Time for Three its first ever ensemble-in-residence. The group has successfully re-created and programmed the ISO's Stella Artois Happy Hour at the Symphony series and performed in a variety of central Indiana schools and communities. In 2013, the ISO became the first orchestra to partner with an artist-services organization/record label – New Amsterdam – in order to periodically showcase the sophisticated new musical vocabulary of these classically-trained composers and instrumentalists.

The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra is committed to providing more than 20 educational and outreach programs that serve community needs and can be heard around the world through its extensive music library at InstantEncore.com, the largest of any orchestra in the country.

This concert marks the fourth appearance for the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra at the Farm Bureau Insurance Lawn at White River State Park. Previous engagements include a symphonic tribute to the music of Led Zeppelin in 2007 and 2009, and a performance with Earth, Wind & Fire in 2011.
