Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra announces Thanksgiving Special concert featuring Grammy Award-winning trumpeter Chris Botti

ISO subscribers may purchase discounted tickets beginning June 27;

*tickets available to the general public on Aug. 13

INDIANAPOLIS – The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra today announced the addition of a one-night-only performance of Grammy Award-winning trumpeter Chris Botti to its 2013-2014 season.

Conducted by Principal Pops Conductor Jack Everly, the special appearance of Botti with the ISO will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the Hilbert Circle Theatre. As America's best-selling jazz trumpeter, Botti will be performing charts from his 2012 Grammy Award-winning CD, Impressions, with the Orchestra. Botti last appeared with the ISO in front of a capacity crowd on Nov. 24, 2009.

ISO subscribers, donors and Forte and ISOA members can purchase tickets through the ISO Box Office at 20% off single ticket prices from June 27-Aug. 12. The general public may purchase tickets on Aug. 13 online at IndianapolisSymphony.org or through the ISO Box Office at (317) 639-4300.
