Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra Presents 50 Years of Rock 'n' Roll: Music of the Rolling Stones in Concerts July 19-20

INDIANAPOLIS – Conductor Brent Havens, vocalist Brody Dolyniuk and the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra are ready to rock 'n' roll with the music of one of the genre's most popular artists, The Rolling Stones, in Marsh Symphony on the Prairie concerts at the Conner Prairie Amphitheater on Friday and Saturday, July 19 and 20, at 8 p.m.

Havens, who created the program, is a long time collaborator with the ISO; many of his rock/symphonic creations have been performed at previous Marsh Symphony on the Prairie concerts. Havens will be joined by a tribute band and Brody Dolyniuk, who has established himself as an interpreter of rock music for touring symphonic presentations. Havens, Dolyniuk and the ISO will perform many of the band's most memorable songs such as "Jumpin' Jack Flash," "I Can't Get No (Satisfaction)," "Wild Horses," "Angie" and "Start Me Up."

The gates to the amphitheater will open at 6 p.m. each evening. Tickets are priced at $23 in advance and $28 at the gate for adults, with children's prices (ages 2-12) at $12 in advance and $14 at the gate. Tickets may be purchased at any Marsh, MainStreet or O'Malia's supermarket location, by calling the Hilbert Circle Theatre Box Office at (317) 639-4300, toll free at (800) 366-8457, or by visiting the ISO's website at www.IndianapolisSymphony.org. Premium parking passes may be purchased for $20 each exclusively through the Hilbert Circle Theatre Box Office.

Patrons can bring their own food, beverages (including alcohol) and blankets or lawn chairs to enjoy picnicking to the music on the beautiful natural grass amphitheater or reserve a table for only $59 with seating for up to 10 people near the stage.

If rain is possible on concert days, the public can stay up-to-date by listening to radio station WIBC (93.1 FM), the official station for Marsh Symphony on the Prairie weather and traffic. Join the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra Facebook page and follow @Indy_Symphony on Twitter for details regarding upcoming concerts, guest artists and news from the ISO.

Artist Biographies

Berklee-trained arranger/conductor Brent Havens has written music for orchestras, feature films and every kind of television, including movies for ABC, CBS and ABC Family Channel Networks, commercials, sports music for ESPN and even cartoons.

Havens has also worked with the Doobie Brothers and the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, arranging and conducting the combined group for Harley Davidson's 100th Anniversary Birthday Party Finale attended by over 150,000 fans. He has worked with some of the world's greatest orchestras, including the Royal Philharmonic in London, the Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Houston, Atlanta, Baltimore, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Diego Symphony Orchestras, the Minnesota Orchestra and countless others.

Havens recently completed the score for the film "Quo Vadis," a Premier Pictures remake of the 1956 gladiator film. He is Arranger/Guest Conductor for seven symphonic rock programs – the Music of Led Zeppelin, the Music of the Doors, the Music of Pink Floyd, the Music of the Eagles, the Music of Queen, the Music of Michael Jackson and most recently, the Music of The Who.

Brody Dolyniuk is a multi-faceted, self-taught musician who began his professional music career playing in piano bars. A chance meeting with a pair of star-shaped sunglasses led to forming an Elton John tribute band Brody called Yellow Brick Road. Soon YBR began going outside the Elton John catalog to perform other classic rock giants such as Led Zeppelin and Pink Floyd, among others.

Within a year, YBR was a steady working band in the Las Vegas music scene and had cultivated a large local following. YBR also became an in-demand choice for the corporate entertainment market.

After 14 years of solid work, Brody stepped down as front man for YBR to pursue other avenues, namely his role as a vocalist for Windborne Music's touring symphony shows, singing the Music of Queen and The Who. Simultaneously, Brody had been developing his own production called Symphonic Rockshow.

Now residing in Southern California, Brody continues to tour and perform as a producer and session musician. To stay in touch with the latest happenings, follow him on Facebook.
