

Date: Friday, Dec. 12, 2014

Contact: Jessica Di Santo – (317) 229-7082

World renowned violinist Joshua Bell to appear with Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra for Opening Night Gala in 2015

Table packages for annual fundraising event now available; single tickets go on sale to ISO subscribers in early February

INDIANAPOLIS – The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra today announced that world renowned violinist Joshua Bell will be the featured guest artist for its annual Opening Night Gala, Saturday, Sept. 26, 2015 at the Hilbert Circle Theatre.

As an anticipated sellout performance, the ISO is offering early bird pricing for corporate tables of eight, which include valet parking, priority seating and a post-concert reception and dinner at the Indiana Roof Ballroom. Single concert tickets will be available for ISO subscribers in early February. The general public will be able to purchase Opening Night Gala in early May.

Conducted by ISO Music Director Krzysztof Urbanski, Opening Night Gala will include the ISO's performance of excerpts from Prokofiev's ballet, Romeo and Juliet, and the West Side Story suite, arranged exclusively for Mr. Bell by William Brohn. The evening will also include a special appearance by ISO artists-in-residence Time for Three. Opening Night Gala is presented by the Christel DeHaan Family Foundation, and proceeds from the Gala dinner benefit the ISO's Annual Fund.

For table reservation information, call (317) 262-5225.

###