Welcome ISOA members to 2018!

In numerology, 2018 is a two year. The number two signifies strength and resilience. When pressure is applied, this number bends and is flexible but comes right back up to complete its task as the power behind the throne. Leadership relies on the clever and insightful advice of the ally, two, working unnoticed from the shadows with grace and the gentle force of persuasion.

In the Chinese Zodiac, 2018 begins in February and will be known as the year of the Dog. Dog years have the reputation for loyalty and honesty, possessing the best traits of human nature. Dog years, like dogs, are honest, friendly, faithful, loyal, smart and straightforward, with a strong sense of responsibility.

Above all remember two is a number of growth. It is the number on its way to somewhere bigger and better. It is also the number associated with the color green.

The statements about the meaning of the year 2018 above are paraphrased from online entries in Wikipedia. As I read them, I see the heart and soul of the ISOA reflected in those descriptions!

We have our work cut out for us with a high goal of $120,000 to help the ISO toward their fundraising goal of $10 million. As generous as the ISOA is with their time, creative ideas and donations, I'm confident we will meet our goal. Keep up the good work, ladies and gentlemen!

Let's all focus on the color green and all its different meanings.

My wish for you all is to be healthy, prosperous and safe, with friendship and love in 2018!

Yours truly,

Wendy

Membership dues to support ISOA programs

by Kay Kinder and Mable Lewis

This fall the ISOA Board reviewed the goals of our organizations and the budget for the upcoming year. Unfortunately, expenses have risen to outpace current incoming dues. We are committed to supporting the five education programs:

Young People's Discovery Concerts, part of the Learning Community outreach, provide State standard-based materials designed to prepare Indiana students to attend a kid-friendly concert at the Hilbert Circle Theatre. ISOA members act as greeters and ushers.

Symphony in Color distributes Indiana standard-based teaching materials as well as CD recordings of music that will be performed by the ISO during the season, and then invites students to respond to the music with original artwork. The ISOA oversees the contest.

The Michael Ben and Illene Komisarow Maurer Young Musicians Contest is designed to showcase Indiana's young classical musicians in solo performances. The winner, chosen by a panel of distinguished judges, later solos with the ISO. The ISOA organizes this contest.

The Side-by-Side Concert offers high school orchestral members an opportunity to perform side-by-side with their ISO counterparts during a featured concert. The ISOA provides the rehearsal luncheon.

With ISOA support, the Metropolitan Youth Orchestra is a family-focused program that offers life-skills instruction, string musical training and orchestral performance experience to city children and their parents.

In order to continue to support these educational programs, the question was raised: Should we raise our dues? ISOA dues were compared to 16 other nonprofit organizations. ISOA dues were the third lowest of those groups. One half of the dues that ISOA members pay goes to the city group to support the expenditures of that group such as newsletters, printing, stamps and events. The other half of the dues goes to the ISOA budget to support the educational programs, printing, stamps and events. At the end of the budget year, what is not spent goes to the ISO.

Membership numbers for all city groups have trended downward in recent years, yet the expenditures for our programs are higher, with costs rising. Following much discussion at the ISOA Board meetings and City Group Board meetings, a vote was taken in February on the proposed dues increase.

The present and proposed dues structures are:

Membership Type	Past Dues	Proposed Dues
Active	$ 40.00	$ 50.00
Patron	$ 80.00	$ 90.00
Couples	$ 70.00	$100.00
Couple Patron	$100.00	$150.00

For this reason, the Board voted to raise membership dues to offset rising costs. We are hoping this does not greatly affect our membership and that everyone will continue to be a valued ISOA contributor. If there are any questions or concerns regarding this increase, please let one of the Board members know.

Membership Committee reports latest news

Our "Strings of the Season" Yuletide Luncheon was attended by 103 members. The decorated MYO violins were showcased as centerpieces for this event. At the LUEY, these violins will be sold to support the MYO. Members used their culinary skills for a bake sale, which cleared $519.00, and the chance door prizes cleared $400.00. The string quartet provided by the ISO gave us the holiday spirit.

The next event is Wednesday, February 26, 2018, 10:00 a.m., in the Wood Room at the Hilbert Circle Theatre. Meet Zach De Pue, Concertmaster and First Violin of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra with Steve Hamilton, Interim CEO of the ISO. We urge you attend and bring guests. It is the opportunity to hear more about ISO from the Concertmaster and greet our friends from

MYO shares information

The Metropolitan Youth Orchestra is a family and youth development program of the Indianapolis Symphony that uses music as the tool to teach life skills, discourage at-risk behaviors and keep kids committed to staying in school.

Concert Dates

Our Classical Concert will be held February 18, and our Pops Concert is May 20. This year our Pops Concert will celebrate Latin music. These concerts are free and are held at Hilbert Circle Theatre at 3:30 p.m. No tickets are required.

Violin Art

This year MYO parents, students, friends and members of the ISOA used their artistic talents to help develop a fun item for the Let Us Entertain You (LUEY) fund-all the groups.

Please save Wednesday, June 6 for the Annual Spring Luncheon. This year it will be held at The Old National Centre, formerly known as the Murat Shrine Temple and the Murat Shrine Center, located at 502 N. New Jersey Street, Indianapolis, IN 46204. Thanks to Faye Crabtree for arranging this venue in a great location with parking available!

We urge all members to continue volunteering and submitting the hours to the ISOA assistant. We thank all the members for all their work to support the ISOA. We will continue to work to grow our membership!

raiser. They were able to take old and broken stringed instruments and paint them to create beautiful pieces of art. These violins will be available for auction on May 5th. Contact the ISOA for more details.

SHIFT Festival

This year MYO will be traveling with the ISO as a residency program for the Kennedy Center's SHIFT Festival in Washington D.C. We will host our Second Chance Strings program at the Kennedy Center's Millennium Stage, where MYO students will spend an hour teaching adults how to play the violin. The adults will then use their new skills to play side-by-side MYO students, performing our signature Pachelbel's Canon in D. MYO students will then perform a repertoire together that will be live-streamed online! Make sure to "Like" the MYO Facebook page to receive updates.

Krystle Ford, MYO Director

2017 ISOA Yuletide Cookies & Wassail sales reported

Thanks from us to 73 volunteer Elves (10 from East Group, 20 from North Group, 27 from South Group and 16 from West Group) who served Cookies and Wassail at the five 2 p.m. performances (Dec. 2, 3, 10, 11 and 16) that the ISOA was responsible for. The numbers above include members as well as friends and relatives they brought to help with the event.

Some Elves cancelled at the last minute, but the people who were called rose to the occasion, earning our grateful thanks.

Thanks to Donna Finney (Volunteer Services Manager) and her ISO staff, Dustin and Kirsten, all went smoothly. We thank Donna, also, for taking pictures of each group of Elves by the Christmas tree in the lobby. These were emailed along with the "Thank You" to each shift by the Head Elf.

There were new positions and arrangements this year, but all volunteers caught on really quickly. Thanks again for volunteering at Yuletide — a special time for all.
Ann McKenzie and Marty Davis, Co - Chairs

To see the ISOA facebook page

Use these instructions to access the ISOA Facebook page and view and download photos.

Prerequisite: You must be a member of Facebook to view the ISOA Facebook page.

1. Type Facebook.com into the browser you use to access the internet (e.g., Google or Internet Explorer).
Result: The Facebook home page displays with a blue bar at the top and a white Search box.
2. Click in that box, and type ISOA.
Result: A box of listings displays directly below where you just typed.
3. Click See all results for isoa. You want the one with the photo of two children holding a white sign that says, "Metropolitan Youth Orchestra," showing the 32 E. Washington St. street address:

Result: the ISOA home page displays, showing that same photo of the MYO kids at the left and a large photo of a painting.

5. Under the large photo, you will see a box that says Like. Click that icon to "Like" the ISOA page.
Result: You are now able to see everything that has been posted to the ISOA's page.
6. To get a copy of a photo that has been posted, left click on the photo so that it is enlarged. Then right click on the photo.
Result: several options are displayed.
7. Click Save image as... and you can then choose to save the photo to your desktop or wherever else you prefer.

Looking at Albums

You will see groups of photos in what Facebook calls Albums. To view these, click on a photo and you will see arrows to the left and to the right. Click the arrows to navigate through the album of photos.

You can:

- "Like" an album
- "Like" a particular photo
- Comment on an album.
- Comment on a particular photo.

If you have any questions, please contact Roger or Leslie Nelson at 317-257-1549 (listed in the East Group section of your directory).

Slate of officers for 2018 - 2020 is announced

The ISOA Nominating Committee is proud to present the following slate of officers for the 2018-2020 term of office:

President-Elect: Mary Ellen Weitekamp (EG)
Corresponding Secretary: Ruth Durbin (NG)
Recording Secretary: Leslie Nelson (EG)
Treasurer: Nela Swinehart (NG)
Assistant Treasurer
(Special Projects): Susan Due (SG)

According to the Bylaws, the slate is to be announced in January, as the Nominating Committee has done, and is to be filed with the January minutes. The election will be held in February. The newly elected officers will be installed at the Annual Meeting on June 6.

Respectively submitted by the Nomination Committee:

Sherry Amlung - Chair
Linda Sykes (EG)
Jan Pierce (NG)
Barbara Ralph (SG)
Dottie Miller (WG)

ISOA has yuletide luncheon: “Strings of the Season”

Membership Chair, Mable Lewis, and her committee welcomed everyone with their own rendition of “Jingle Bells.”

ISOA President, Wendy Adams, greeted and welcomed everyone. She gave several thank you gifts to ISOA members who, in her opinion, stood out for their contributions to the ISO and ISOA.

The luncheon centerpieces included violins painted by MYO families. Wendy announced that the violins would be available for purchase at the upcoming LUEY. Wendy announced that Julie Turnquist recently had serious surgery and requested prayers for her as well as the families of those who had recently passed away. She reminded everyone of LUEY “Glitter and Glitz” at the Skyline Club May 5, 2018.

Helen Rudesill- gave the blessing.

Mable gave out door prizes.

Sarah Stoel shared that Orchestra D solo recitals will be held on December 10 at Broadway United Methodist Church. Help is needed with registration, etc.

Following lunch, Mable awarded more door prizes. She also introduced all the past Presidents of ISOA. Susan Kemp played the piano, and Leslie Nelson also played for the entire group to sing “Jingle Bells.”

Mable introduced an ISO string quartet – Sophia Cho, Michelle Black, Amy Kniffen and Anne McCafferty – who entertained us with beautiful music. Each musician spoke briefly, thanking everyone for the privilege of playing with the ISO and also for all the ISOA does for them. They ended their performance with a sing-along of “Joy to the World” and “Jingle Bells.”

Mable shared that the centerpiece wreaths (made by Jackie Williams) were for sale.

ISO Board Chair, Yvonne Shaheen, was introduced and thanked.

Faye Crabtree, Recording Secretary

Wabash Unit

Hopefully, everyone has remained safe through this winter weather. The Wabash Unit celebrated the holiday season with another beautiful Honeywell House Holiday Open House on November 19, 2017. Some 200 guests wandered through the elegantly decorated rooms of Mrs. Honeywell’s home and were treated to holiday “goodies” and entertainment by the Symphonic Voices and the Debonairs, as well as by the Honeywell Foundation. Currently, the Wabash Unit is working on launching its annual membership drive in February. Schools throughout Wabash County are reading their entries for Symphony in Color. Our Symphony in Color Recognition Reception will be May 15, 2018. Our next Board Meeting will be March 19, 2018, with Minda Lehman and Susie Jones co-hosting. We wish everyone the best as you navigate through the rest of these winter months and look forward to a warm and beautiful spring. Susan Beckett, President

East Group

This past November 8 proved to be a good scheduling change for our annual Luncheon/Style Show from our past spring dates. We want to thank all those who attended and also Faye Crabtree and Linda Sykes for chairing this event. Our next annual Luncheon/Style Show will be on Wednesday, November 14, 2018; so, you can mark your calendars now!

East Group celebrated the 2017 holiday season with their Christmas Tea and New Member Welcome on December 14 at the Sassafras Tea Room in Greenwood. Steve Hamilton, Interim CEO of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra (ISO), was our guest. Steve brought us up-to-date on the ISO and some exciting upcoming events. We also had our traditional Cookie Sale, which was very successful.

As we look ahead to the New Year, plans are underway for our Musical Evening on March 19, 6 p.m. at All Souls Unitarian Church, 5805 East 56th Street. Plan to spend an evening with wine and hors d'oeuvres while listening to our ISO guest, Blake Schlabach, Trombone Assistant Principal and ISO Personnel Manager. Checks ($20/person) can be sent to Karen Harding, 1131 N.

North Group

As the new year begins, we have before us many delightful opportunities to be engaged in so many rewarding ways.

Symphony In Color is always a joy to support, and lots of volunteers are needed from February 5 onward. If you did not receive an electronic sign-up form from Becky Kern, do ask for one or call Mary Richards and let her know that you want to support this amazing project.

North Group's Winter Blah's is February 2 - Please know that members of other ISOA groups are most welcome to join us for dinner at CharBlue in a private dining room, and then we will slip in the Washington Street door, next door, to attend the concert. We know how to chase away the Winter Blah's and chill. Among other pieces, the orchestra will perform "Invitation to Dance" by Weber, which is one of the selections the children will be listening to in their schools and using as inspiration for creating entries into Symphony in Color

St., Indianapolis, IN 46201 payable to ISOA-East Group by March 12.

April 18 is the date for our bus trip to Columbus, Indiana. The day will include an architectural tour of Columbus, a visit to the Miller House, lunch at Zaharakos Ice Cream Parlor and Museum and perhaps a little time for some shopping. In the near future, all ISOA members will receive a flyer with more detailed information and registration, but you can put it on your calendars now.

Many of our members will be attending the Winter Blahs on February 23 after gathering at the Santorini Greek Restaurant in Fountain Square for dinner.

East Group has recently welcomed two more new members for this year. They are Vicki Sholty and Tisha LeMaster. We look forward to getting to know them and having them involved in supporting the ISO.

With many of our ISOA-supported educational endeavors approaching, I am sure we will be seeing many of you over the next few months. Stay warm and safe during this winter!

Mary Ellen Weitekamp, East Group Chair

2018. Their artwork will be even more enjoyable to us all after having actually heard what they have interpreted in their original art. Reservations for tickets and arrangements for the evening are in the very capable hands of Eleanor Wilcox.

Meet the Master – the concertmaster, that is – Zachary DePue on February 26 at 10 a.m. in the Wood Room at Hilbert Circle Theatre. What a perfect opportunity to learn more about one of America's youngest concertmasters! It's also a perfect time to bring a few friends and introduce them to one of the many perks of being involved as ISOA volunteers. This experience is yours free of charge. Take advantage of it. Those activities get us off to an exciting start to 2018, with much more to follow closely behind. Enrich your life over the next few months and enjoy these delightful opportunities.

Kay Kinder and Gail McDermott-Bowler, North Group Co-Chairs

South Group

South Group's Holiday Luncheon was December 11 at Bonefish Grill in Greenwood. We enjoyed an excellent meal and had fun entertainment provided by South Group members. Pam Hicks, Meme Kramer, Betty Stevens and their committee did an outstanding job of arranging a delightful Holiday Luncheon. There will be $1,200 donated to the symphony.

The Premiere Jewelry Party fund-raiser was held on December 13 at my home, and $250 will be donated to the Symphony from the sales.

Chase the Winter Blahs will be on February 23, 2018 at 8 p.m. Pat McClarney has arranged for us to have dinner at Granite City at 5 p.m.

West Group

Happy New Year!

As we start the New Year, we recall our great fall

events:

On October 11, twenty of us got together at Le Peep on the west side for a Sip & Chat. We ate, visited, had an open board meeting and got to know our new members.

On October 23, we enjoyed a wonderful coach trip to Delphi led by Susan Smithburn, Dottie Miller, and their committee. We visited the Canal Park, where we learned the history of the Canal, rode on the replica 19th century canal boat and visited the interactive museum. We then went to the 1865 Delphi Opera House where we ate lunch prepared beautifully by the Garden Gate Tea House on the Square, visited the gift shop, toured the Opera House and enjoyed an informal concert of Civil War music by Sharon McKnight, a Lafayette singer and guitarist.

In November MANY of us baked MANY loaves of yummy bread/cake (lemon poppy seed, pumpkin and golden rum) for our annual fund-raiser, the Holiday Bread Project. This was the most successful ever with MANY purchases.

On November 1, we provided food for the monthly ISOA Board meeting. Included were mini-muffins of the holiday breads we would be selling so that all could sample.

Musical Evening will be on April 30 at the home of Lynn Wiesman, with details to be determined.

Our Annual Meeting/Fashion Show will be on June 9 at U-Indy. The theme will be "Summer Safari." The Secret Ingredient will be in charge of the Fashion Show.

South Group has been very busy with the Symphony Store. It has been a highly successful year with $29,683.58 in sales.

Our annual Bus Trip to Churchill Downs will be May 11. Kathy Pierce is the contact person for this awesome event.
Lori Rifkind, Chair

On Nov. 16, the ISOA hosted the annual brunch in the lobby of the Hilbert Circle Theatre for the ISO musicians and staff. Five of our members provided food.

On Dec. 13 we had our annual Holiday pitch - in - luncheon at Hoosier Village. Jane Fay made the arrangements; Susan Smithburn created the cheery invitation and Jackie Williams worked her decorating magic for this "Snowman Serenade." Twenty members and guests attended and enjoyed good food and fellowship.

We are very pleased to have made a donation to the ISO through the ISOA for the Sept. 1, 2016-Aug. 31, 2017 fiscal year of $6,940, mainly from our Musical Morning at Avon Gardens and our Holiday Bread Project. Our goal for this year (2017-18) is $5000.

Now on to the New Year:

"Chase the Winter Blahs" for West Group will be for the scheduled ISO concert on Friday, February 23, at 8 p.m. ($12.00 per ticket). Lynda Brill is chair of this event, and specifics are in The Trumpeter. Please join us.

Scheduled for Wednesday, April 11, is our Spring Sip & Chat at Le Peep.

Save the date of Monday, June 4, for our Musical Morning with brunch at Avon Gardens.

Ann McKenzie, Chair

Columbus Unit

The Columbus Unit of ISOA held our annual "Brunch and Learn" at the Edinburgh Hilton Garden Inn on Nov. 10, 2017, with The Secret Ingredient hosting a style show and boutique. Again, it was a tremendous success, and our members learned about layering clothing and accessorizing. The boutique netted several thousands in sales that day, and The Secret Ingredient donated 10 percent of sales back to our organization.

We are now planning our Annual Meeting/Style Show at Harrison Lake Country Club on April 27, 2018, with Lockett's Ladies' Shop of Columbus hosting the event. The Parkside Elementary Children's Choir will again provide entertainment at that event. These children will have attended the 2017 Discovery Concert in Indianapolis, compliments of our Columbus Unit of ISOA. Please let us know if any of your members would like invitations to the event.
Sincerely, Carol Mote, Chair

Coming Events

SAVE THE DATE OF APRIL 18, 2018 FOR A TRIP TO COLUMBUS, INDIANA

*A visit to the Miller House,

*Lunch at Zaharako's Ice Cream Parlor and Museum if you choose to

Meet the Master

Please join the ISOA in meeting and greeting our remarkably talented Concertmaster, Zachary DePue. This is the fourth year that the ISOA has highlighted our illustrious leaders and directors of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. This is one of our favorite events of the year. Joining Zach will be Steve Hamilton, ISO's Vice-President of Finance and Acting CEO. I hope members and guests can join us on Monday, February 26 at 10 a.m. in the Wood Room of the Hilbert Circle Theatre, hosted by the ISOA Membership Committee. See you there!
