Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra JUNE CONCERT SCHEDULE

Urbański conducts Mahler's Symphony No. 5

June 5, 8 p.m. at The Palladium (Palladium Series)

June 6, 5:30 p.m. at Hilbert Circle Theatre (Lilly Classical Series)

June 7, 3 p.m. at Center Grove High School (317 Series)

Krzysztof Urbański, Conductor

ISO Music Director Krzysztof Urbański leads the orchestra in Mahler's Fifth Symphony, a work that reflects the development of love in Bohemian composer Gustav Mahler's personal life, with its trajectory from mourning to triumph.

- Urbański will conduct the score as originally intended by the composer, with an extended pause between the second and third movements.
- Leonard Bernstein, who conducted the fourth movement (Adagietto) during the funeral mass for Robert Kennedy, once said "(Mahler's) marches are like heart attacks, his chorales like all Christendom gone mad."

Lilly Classical Series

Beethoven's Ninth

June 11, 7:30 p.m.

June 12, 8 p.m.

June 13, 5:30 p.m.

June 14, 8 p.m. at The Palladium (Palladium Series)

Krzysztof Urbański, Conductor

Indianapolis Symphonic Choir

Beethoven's Ninth Symphony is considered by some as the greatest piece of music ever written. The Indianapolis Symphonic Choir joins the ISO and Krzysztof Urbański for this triumphant season finale.

- This is the first time Maestro Urbański has conducted this seminal piece in Indianapolis.
 - The ISO last performed Beethoven's Ninth to a capacity crowd at the Palladium in 2011.

Lunch Break Series

Gershwin and Marimba

Thursday, June 18, 12:15 p.m.

Keitaro Harada, Conductor

Daniel Hallett, Marimba

Bring your lunch, pick any seat in Hilbert Circle Theatre, and relax with a 40-minute performance by the ISO and 2015 Maurer Young Musician Competition winner, Daniel Hallett, performing the Prism Rhapsody for Marimba by Keiko Abe. All seats are $5.

- Daniel Hallett just completed his senior year at West Lafayette High School.
 - He has only been playing the marimba for 18 months.
 - The marimba originated as a folk instrument in Africa and Latin America. John Calhoun Deagan founded the first U.S. company to manufacture percussion instruments in the 1880s and produced the first modern America marimba in the 1920s.
 - Also on the Lunch Break Series program are Sibelius' Finlandia and Gershwin's Cuban Overture.
