Indianapolis Symphony to perform ISO's Star Spangled Symphony at White River State Park, July 1

Special one-night-only program will celebrate nation's independence with patriotic classics and fireworks at beautiful downtown park

INDIANAPOLIS (May 9, 2016) — The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra is pleased to announce a special one-night-only concert celebrating Independence Day on Friday, July 1, as part of the Harrison College Concert Series at The Farm Bureau Insurance Lawn at White River State Park. A spectacular fireworks show will conclude the performance of patriotic favorites, including America the Beautiful, God Bless America, and the 1812 Overture, among others.

"The ISO's Star Spangled Symphony is one of the most popular performance weekends at Marsh Symphony on the Prairie at Conner Prairie, attracting well over 20,000 fans each year," said Gary Ginstling, Chief Executive Officer of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. "We are delighted to bring this patriotic program to White River State Park and downtown Indianapolis for the first time."
